American consul-general at Boma Kongo, stating that an investigation has disclosed that the crew of the small cutter flying the American flag, which were seized at Quissanga Argola, West Africa, about two weeks ago, were Americans and that the vessel was American owned. The master and one sailor were sent to Loanda, the former charged with diamond robbery in the neighboring German colony. The charges of rebbery against the master were not sustained, however, and the affair has been settled satisfactorily.
